

Medical First Responder Alsbach a.d.B

Deutsches Rotes Kreuz

02.10.2021

Johannes Krafczyk

When an emergency drops in ...

Deutsches Rotes Kreuz

- 80 % of all cardiac arrest take place in family or household
- Survival rate (2010): 7 %

The challenge

Ischemic tolerance
of our brain
3-5 min.

Response time of advanced
emergency service
6-12 min.

The answer

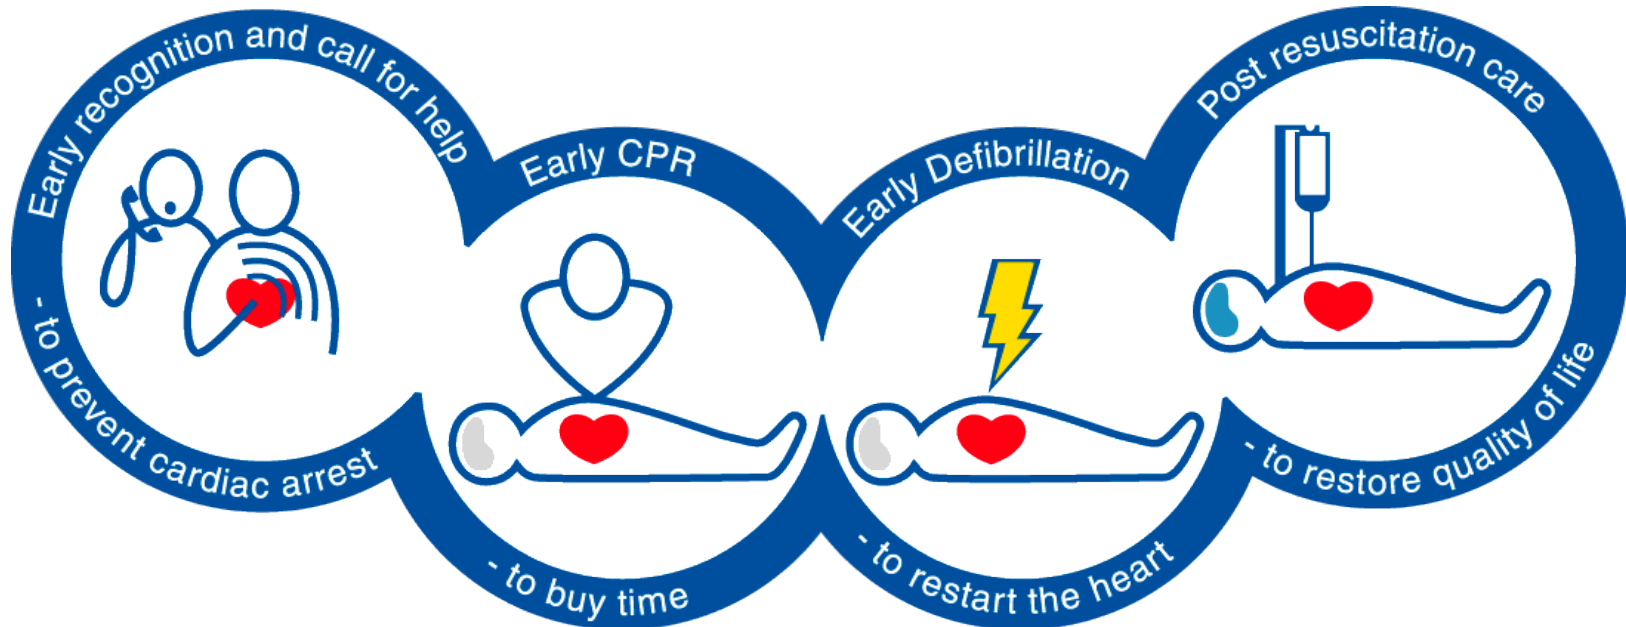

Early basic treatment provided by trained locals

[First Aid rate (2012): 15-35%]

... how to save a life

Deutsches Rotes Kreuz

Chain of Survival - ERC

Why are we so fast?

parallel alarm

professional equipment

Deutsches Rotes Kreuz

local operation area

Our tasks

Deutsches Rotes Kreuz

Assessment & Callback

Stop the bleeding

Clear the airways

Early CPR

Recovery Position

Psycho-social Care

if required

Our tasks

How is the patient?

Deutsches Rotes Kreuz

Assessment & Callback

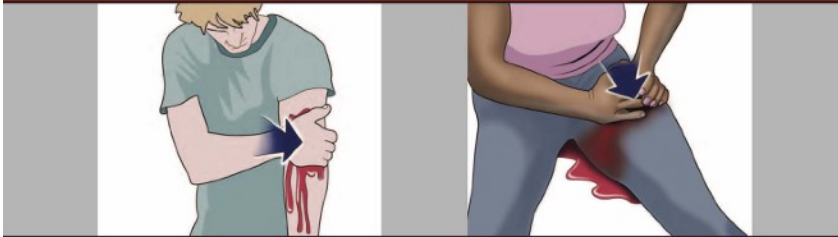

More units needed?

Our tasks

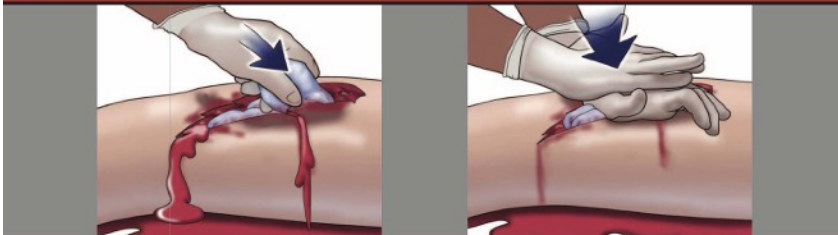

Deutsches Rotes Kreuz

1 APPLY PRESSURE WITH HANDS

2 APPLY DRESSING AND PRESS

3 APPLY TOURNIQUET

WRAP

WIND

SECURE

TIME

Stop the bleeding

Clear the airways

Early CPR

Recovery Position

Our tasks

Deutsches Rotes Kreuz

Stop the bleeding

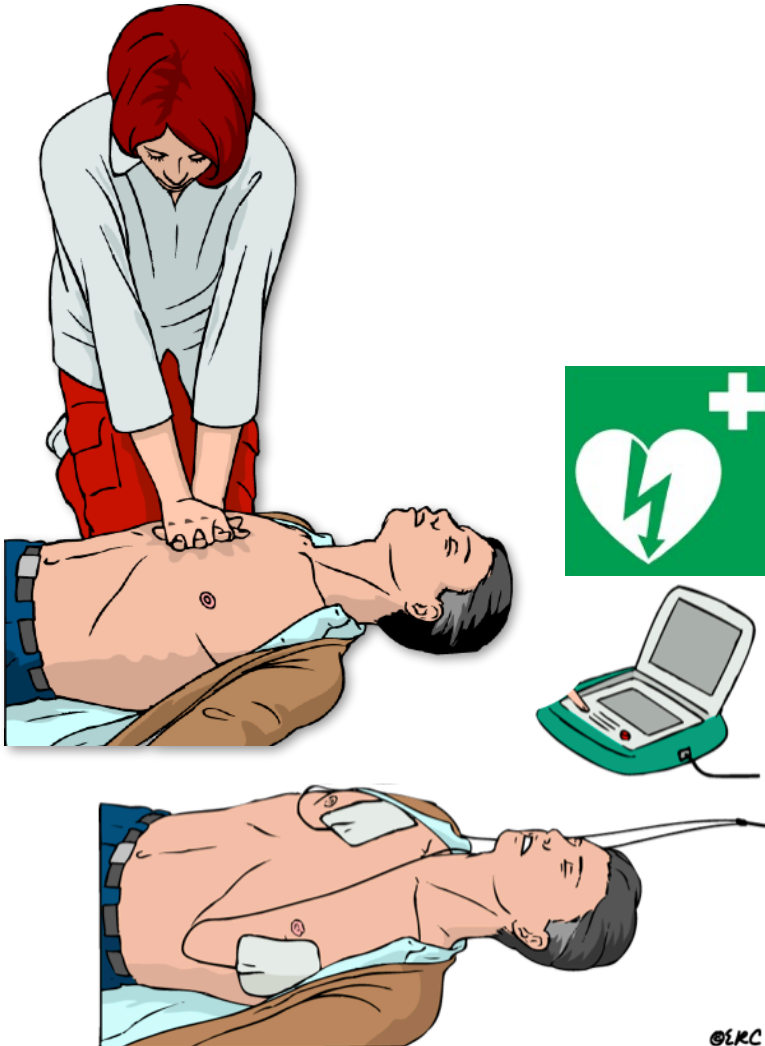

Clear the airways

Early CPR

Recovery Position

Our tasks

Deutsches Rotes Kreuz

Stop the bleeding

Clear the airways

Early CPR

Recovery Position

Our tasks

Deutsches Rotes Kreuz

Stop the bleeding

Clear the airways

Early CPR

Recovery Position

Our tasks

Deutsches Rotes Kreuz

Psycho-social Care

Always „up to date“

Deutsches Rotes Kreuz

weekly scenario training

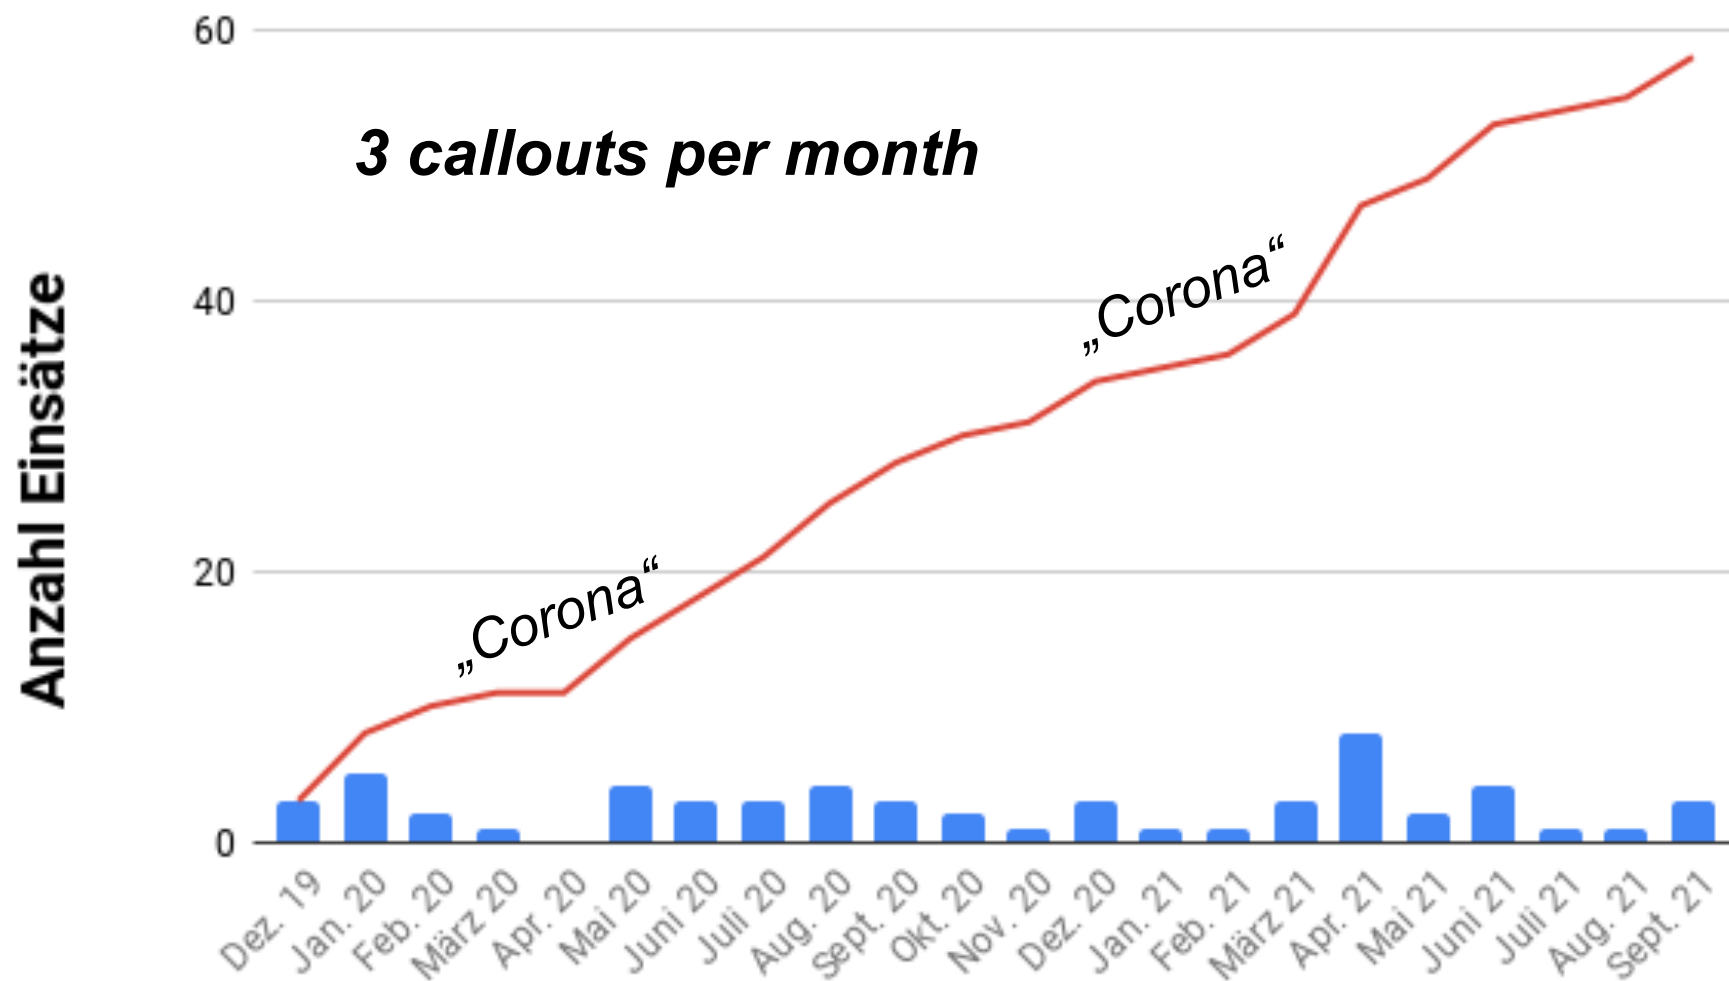

licensed courses

What have we done so far?

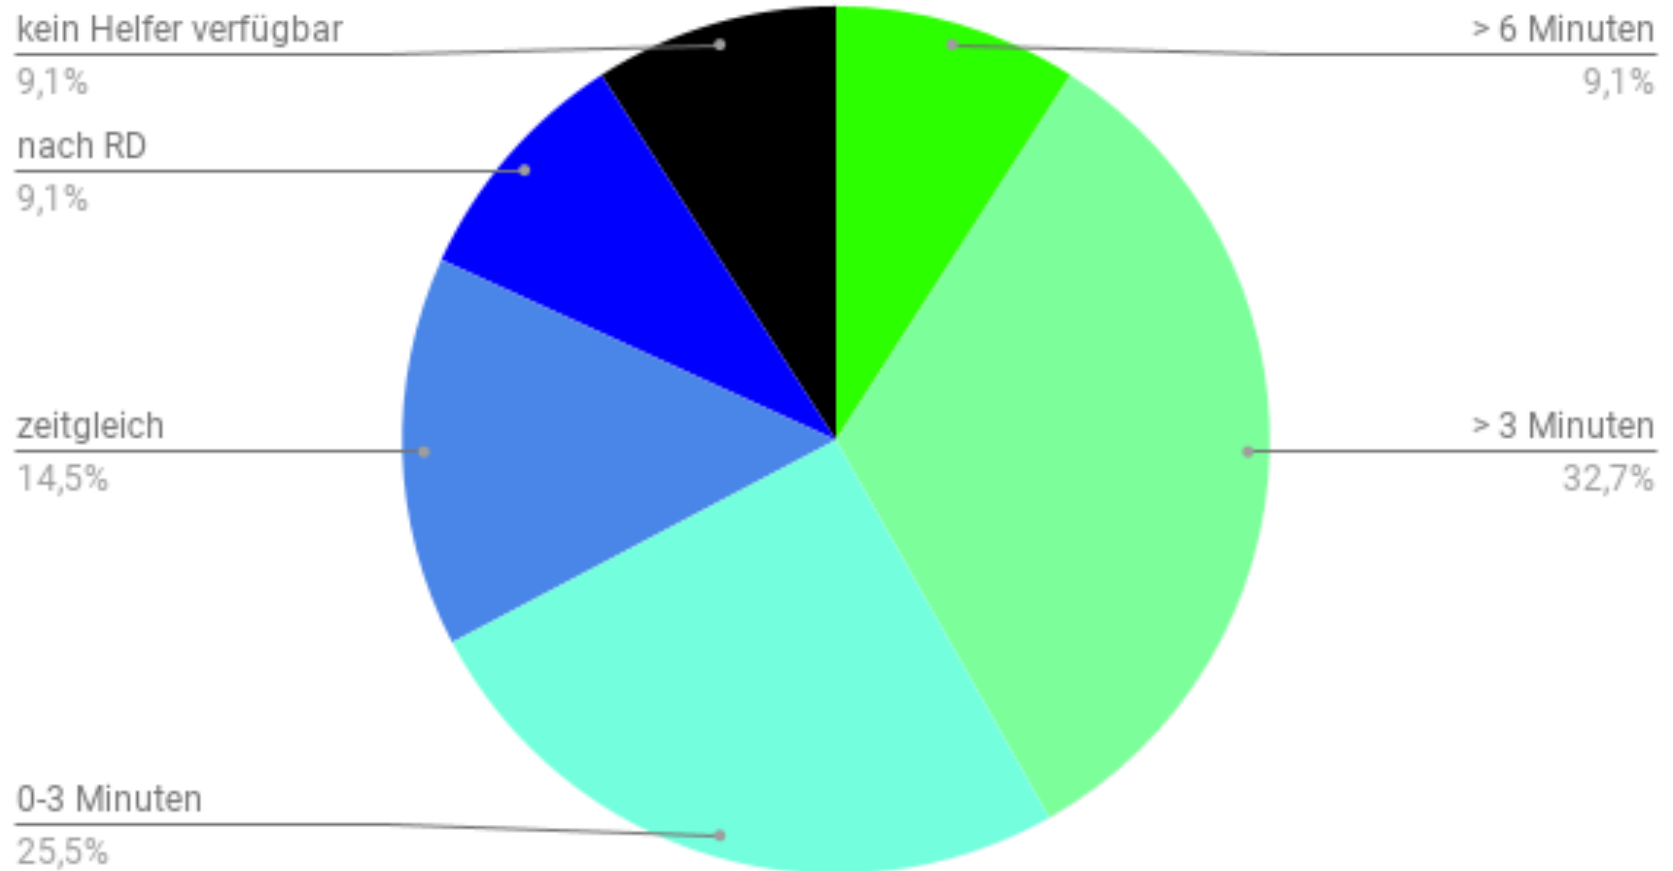

Deutsches Rotes Kreuz

What have we done so far?

Deutsches Rotes Kreuz

Lead Over EMS

Volunteering 24h every day!

Deutsches Rotes Kreuz

Unsalaries. Neighborly. Year-round.

Thank you!

Deutsches Rotes Kreuz

Humanitarian Aid on a small scale - DRK Alsbach

Johannes Krafczyk

Follow us @drkalsbach

0178 5207397
san@drk-alsbach.de

WhatsApp

Facebook

Instagram